Letter from Pastor Lee:

New Life Has Come

God has given a new life to our church last week – SungPyo (Paul) and KeunHeo (Jules) had a baby, ShinWoo Park (nickname – apple). Jules had gone to the hospital on Wednesday and finally had her baby on Friday. I went immediately to the hospital upon receiving such great news. I have taken picture of the new dad. I also prayed for the new mom's speedy recovery.

She was supposed to have been discharged from the hospital on Sunday, but on Sunday morning, I got a call from Paul that the baby had to be treated since he had a jaundice and had to get a sublingual operation. While the baby stayed at the hospital for treatment, Jules was able to finally come home on Monday. I remembered that my youngest daughter had to stay at the hospital because she had a jaundice and my son had had a sublingual operation when he was young. Rather than coming back home with the baby immediately, it would seem better to identify the problem early on and get the treatment quickly.

However, it would have been tough for the first-time parents to come back home without their baby. As I spoke with Jules over the phone and comforted her, she was soon in tears. Even though it was not something serious, I understood that as a parent, one would be deeply concerned. As I was comforting the parents further, they expressed their gratitude that they were able to be comforted in this way.

As you can see, it takes a lot for a new life to be coming into the world. We should be thankful that our children grow up healthy. If your child is sick, you would not be joyful or comforted by any money, promotions at work, or reputation.

There is an old friend of mine whom I love and respect. His child is currently in the hospital, recovering from an operation; he got hurt in a car accident. As I was praying at church this morning, I thought him and his wife, who would probably be looking after their child desperately. I will pray for them together. God loves the child. Whether it be ShinWoo or my friend's child, I strongly believe that God is taking care of them. They will soon recover and grow up as children of God. I also believe that God is looking after all of us. Let us not forget and fail to appreciate that He will give us the health and strength to live on. Paul, Jules, and my beloved friend, I will pray for you. Jesus loves them much more than you love them!

Joint Thanksgiving Service with KMUMC

November 19th 11AM

If you want to participate in the joint choir piece, there will be practice at 8PM on Saturday '11th and 18th

Choir Starting 8:30AM Sunday Practice- Join us!!!

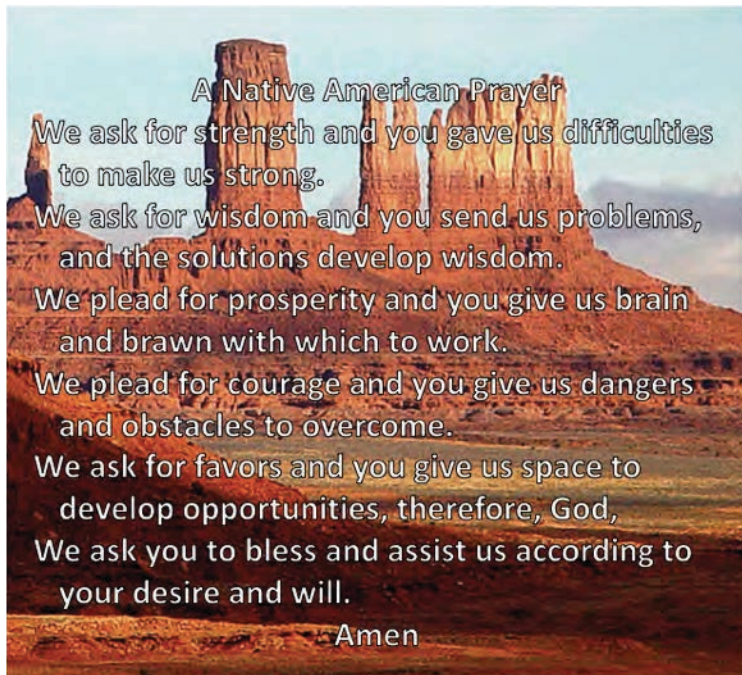

God loves it when you sing and the choir is one way we try and give God that Joy every Sunday. He knows our voices aren't perfect and we aren't all talented musicians, but he loves it when we sing together in his name and we in the choir feel his presence guiding our song. It is great fun. So join us 8:30AM for practice and see if this is one way you too can make God smile.

It is time for the "Calendar Drive for the Asbury Dining and Caring Center" which we do each year.

There will be a collection box by the office for collecting 2018 calendars you do not want and wish to donate to the guests at the Asbury Caring and Dining Center

A Native American Prayer

We ask for strength and you gave us difficulties to make us strong.

We ask for wisdom and you send us problems, and the solutions develop wisdom.

We plead for prosperity and you give us brain and brawn with which to work.

We plead for courage and you give us dangers and obstacles to overcome.

We ask for favors and you give us space to develop opportunities, therefore, God,

We ask you to bless and assist us according to your desire and will.

Amen

November 11th Movie 2PM - Soup and Dessert to follow

Hidden Figures is wonderful movie very uplifting about finding ways to do what you are meant to do despite adversity. It is funny, heart warming and exciting. A rare combination! And based on a true story!

Advent Adult Sunday School Starting Dec 3rd- Luke

Just in time to begin our season of Advent, the adult Sunday School Class is starting to go through the Gospel of Luke. This follows nicely from Acts as we can see how this Gospel leads to the new church we met in Acts- also written by Luke. Even more great is this is the Gospel many of us really associate with Christmas as it is the one Linus reads in Charlie Brown's Christmas which has touched so many of our hearts. Come join us and hear this wonderful story again. 11:30 AM on Sundays

In Faith November 2017

Taking a moment to look back at the mission our church has been a partner in...

Flower City Habitat for Humanity

Flower City Habitat for Humanity (FCHH) was founded in 1984 by Roger Cross. They have built or renovated over 200 homes in Rochester. The goal is to join FCHH in giving "a hand up not a hand out".

In the FCHH Homebuyer Program, low income families work sweat hours and then build a house with volunteers from the community. Families purchase homes from FCHH with a no profit mortgage. The payments of this mortgage are combined with donor money to help fund other FCHH homes and projects in the Rochester area.

These are the houses that is was our privilege to help God build. Let's all say a prayer for the families that make them home.

Having somewhere to go is a HOME
Having someone to love is a FAMILY
Having both is a BLESSING
